Air Mauritius introduces its third weekly flight to Hong Kong

Air Mauritius is pleased to announce its third weekly flight to Hong Kong as from 12th February 2010. The flight will depart Mauritius on Fridays at 20H00 (local time) and come back from Hong Kong on Sundays to reach Mauritius at 07H15 (local time).

In this context, Air Mauritius is introducing a special launch return fare of Rs 12,000 to Hong Kong, inclusive of taxes and excluding service fees. The promotional fare is applicable only for departure on flight MK640 of 12th February 2010. Passengers may return to Mauritius from Hong Kong on flight MK641 of either the 19th, 21st, 23rd or 26th February 2010. Bookings should be made by 31st January 2010.

"Through this promotional fare, we want to give the opportunity for Mauritians to visit their friends and relatives in Hong Kong and China on the occasion of the Chinese New Year. It will also be an opportunity for our compatriots to visit these two destinations for shopping and business purposes. With the third frequency, we will be offering more choices and flexibility to our valued customers", states Raj Deenanath, Vice President Sales Support & Distribution of Air Mauritius.

Air Mauritius already operates two weekly flights to Hong Kong which depart SSR International Airport each Wednesday and Sunday at 20H00.

More information on the above special offer is available on the website www.airmauriti.us.com or by calling Air Mauritius on 207 7575 or from travel agents.
