AIR MAURITIUS MOVES TO TERMINAL 2F OF PARIS' ROISSY CHARLES DE GAULLE AIRPORT

As from 28th October 2007, Air Mauritius will operate its 16 weekly flights to Terminal 2F of Paris' Roissy Charles de Gaulle Airport.

Nine flights will be operated by Air Mauritius and seven flights by our code share Partner, Air France.

Terminal 2F is modern, with more space, more rest areas, better signage and numerous duty free facilities. It will provide Air Mauritius passengers with a more comfortable and traveler friendly pre-flight environment.

"We are pleased to shift our operations' base from Terminal 2C to Terminal 2F of Roissy Charles de Gaulle. Our passengers will benefit from an improved ground product as terminal 2F offers more space and more facilities. Checking-in through Terminal 2F will be a more pleasant experience before boarding our aircraft and enjoying our inflight service", says Air Mauritius CEO, Manoj R. K. Ujoodha

Terminal 2F offers more connecting flights to French domestic airports and is situated closer to the TGV station.
